VirTra Systems Announces Date For Annual Shareholders' Meeting

Tempe, Arizona (March 29, 2012) -- VirTra Systems (OTC Pink: VTSL.PK), a leading provider of firearms training simulation systems to military, law enforcement agencies and other organizations, today announced that it plans to hold its 2012 Annual Shareholders' Meeting on May 8, 2012 in Tempe, AZ. In addition, VirTra has declared the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote at the Annual Shareholders' Meeting as the close of business on April 20, 2012. Notice of the meeting and related materials will be mailed in late April.

Bob Ferris, President and Chief Executive Officer of VirTra Systems, stated, "I look forward to communicating with our shareholders the progress VirTra has made in the past year as well as discussing the future that lies ahead for the Company. Our team has made great strides in expanding our presence with law enforcement agencies and we continue to make progress in growing our relationships with various military branches and agencies."

With respect to VirTra's 2011 financial results, the certified audit being performed by BDO Seidman Alliance Member, Semple, Marchal & Cooper, LLP, is not yet complete and remains ongoing. The Company's original goal for completion of the audit was March 30, 2012. VirTra's team is working diligently with the auditors with the objective to finalize the audit prior to the Annual Shareholders' Meeting.
